

Tastes and Textures Tour (See tour.jpg for accompanying image)

There are few things better than good food and exotic travel, and one of them is good food and travel combined. Every once in a while, Chutney Villa's owner and chef, Chindi Varadarajulu packs her apron into a suitcase to embark on a cultural and culinary tour of India, and you're welcome to join her. She's proud of her heritage, and feels lucky to have this chance to show off the beauty and culture of her homeland.

Chindi's Tastes and Textures tour takes you through the lush natural beauty and rich cultural heritage of Southern India. Travel from the magnificent palaces of Mysore to the exhilarating forests of Madhumalai; descend from the refreshing eucalyptus covered hills of Ooty to the tranquil boathouses of Kumarakom. And all through your expeditions, sample exotic cuisine, sated with the peppery, tangy, bittersweet flavours of India
